

UK Airsoft Federation

UKAF

Members Charter

The Members Charter dictates what members can expect from UKAF and in turn, what is expected from the members, themselves.

Members of UKAF are bound by the Members Charter and Code of Practice.

UKAF's Purpose and Aims

United Kingdom Airsoft Federation, UKAF, is a not-for-profit Organisation that exists to promote, protect, educate and lobby on behalf of its members, who are part of, involved or otherwise intrinsically connected to the industry/hobby/sport of Airsoft.

- To defend vigorously and lobby for the best interests of Airsoft
- To promote the worth, credibility and standing of all Players and the wider Airsoft Industry.
- To enable UKAF members to understand and safeguard their rights within the bounds of the industry.
- To treat their employees, fellow members and UKAF staff with respect.
- To constantly strive to uphold and enhance the reputation of the UKAF by demonstrating exemplary standards in their professional conduct.
- To conduct their professional operations within the law.

